

Sun Country Region Anti-Discrimination Policy

Sun Country Region strives to create an environment that is free from discrimination or exclusion based on race, sexual orientation, gender identity, religious affiliations, or other personal attributes. We also seek to end bullying, cyber-bullying, hazing, harassment, and offensive conduct in all forms. These are actions that are not consummate with our organizational philosophy, nor with the culture we will create in our region.

Our region will comply with all anti-discrimination laws outlined by the State of Texas, as well as local, regional, and/or federal law.

Sun Country Region Employees

Sun Country Region outlines an extensive anti-discrimination and anti-harassment policy in the SURVA Employee Handbook. All SURVA employees are bound by these policies.

Sun Country Region Members & Event Participants

Any participant at a Sun Country Region event should immediately report any discriminatory behavior to the staff member or tournament director on site. The USAV Code of Conduct, the USAV/SURVA Parent & Spectator Code of Conduct, and all other applicable policies will be enforced.

Any member found to be engaged in discriminatory behavior may be subject to sanction by the region and/or USA Volleyball.

Such behavior may also be grounds for temporary or permanent revocation of privileges to attend Sun Country Region/USAV approved events.
